Infoware hopes that you have enjoyed this seasons tipping comp and we hope to see you all back, dusted down and ready to go again in 2025.

FINALS

1		Storm
2		Panthers
3		Roosters
4		Sharks
5 ▲		Cowboys
6 ▼		Bulldogs
7		Sea Eagles
8 ▲		Knights

The bookies aren't giving anyone a chance except Storm and Panthers. A little bit hard to argue unless you are one of the other 6 runners. It is a new comp now.

Quiet, (actually loud if you are near Sharse) corner tip for the Sharks.

Remus Rudd

No matter what side of the political fence you're on, THIS is FUNNY and VERY telling! It just all depends on how you look at the same things.

Judy Rudd an amateur genealogy researcher in south east Queensland , was doing some personal work on her own family tree. She discovered that ex-Prime Minister Kevin Rudd's great-great uncle, Remus Rudd, was hanged for horse stealing and train robbery in Melbourne in 1889. Both Judy and Kevin Rudd share this common ancestor.

The only known photograph of Remus shows him standing on the gallows at the Melbourne Jail.

On the back of the picture Judy obtained during her research is this inscription:

'Remus Rudd horse thief, sent to Melbourne Jail 1885, escaped 1887, robbed the Melbourne-Geelong train six times.

Caught by Victoria Police Force, convicted and hanged in 1889.'

So Judy recently e-mailed ex-Prime Minister Rudd for information about their great-great uncle, Remus Rudd.

Believe it or not, Kevin Rudd's staff sent back the following biographical sketch for her genealogy research:

"Remus Rudd was famous in Victoria during the mid to late 1800s. His business empire grew to include acquisition of valuable equestrian assets and intimate dealings with the Melbourne-Geelong Railroad..

Beginning in 1883, he devoted several years of his life to government service, finally taking leave to resume his dealings with the railroad.

In 1887, he was a key player in a vital investigation run by the Victoria Police Force. In 1889, Remus passed away during an important civic function held in his honour when the platform upon which he was standing collapsed."

NOW That's how it's done, Folks!

That's real POLITICAL SPIN

I think It's stupid that you can't smoke with kids in the car anymore. Just look how wet they are now. 🤔

Men all around the world between 40 to 60 years, will on average have sex 2 to 3 times per week (and a small number a lot more)

Whereas Japanese men, in the exact same age group will have sex once or twice a year if they are lucky.

This has come as very upsetting news to most of my friends as they had no idea they were Japanese!

I think it's us that are being treated as clowns 🤡.

If you earn it, they tax it
If you spend it, they tax it
If you save it, they tax it
If you invest in it, they tax it
If you build it, they tax it
If you sell it, they tax it
If you live in it, they tax it
If you drive it, they tax it
If you eat it, they tax it
If you give it away, they tax it
When you die, they tax it
Then they waste it

Strange new trend at the office. People putting names on food in the company fridge. Today I had a tuna sandwich named Linda.

HR: Let me make sure I understand. You were fired. You refused to leave and you called a bunch of your friends to vandalize the workplace. When you finally DID leave, you stole a bunch of classified documents. You got caught, lied about it, and got caught again. Now you're reapplying for the job??

President Trump is visiting an elementary school today and he visits one of the classes. They are in the middle of a discussion related to words and their meanings.

The teacher asks the President if he would like to lead the class in the discussion of the word, "tragedy." So, the illustrious leader asks the class for an example of a "tragedy."

One little boy stands up and offers, "If my best friend, who lives next door, is playing in the street and a car comes along and runs him over, that would be a tragedy."

"No," says President Trump, "that would be an ACCIDENT."

A little girl raises her hand: "If a school bus carrying 50 children drove off a cliff, killing everyone involved that would be a tragedy."

"I'm afraid not," explains President Trump. "That's what we would call a GREAT LOSS."

The room goes silent. No other children volunteer.

President Trump searches the room. "Isn't there someone here who can give me an example of a tragedy?"

Finally, way in the back of the room, a small boy raises his hand. In a quiet voice he says, "If Air Force One, carrying President Trump, were struck by a missile and blown up to smithereens, by a terrorist like Osama bin Laden, that would be a tragedy."

"Fantastic," exclaims President Trump, "that's right. And can you tell me WHY that would be a TRAGEDY?"

"Well," says the boy, "because it wouldn't be an accident, and it certainly wouldn't be a great loss."
